Lives

Time approaches and time passes. We do not have it in our power to stop or slow down its passing. We can only attempt to make each moment in our lives worthwhile.

Our days at Charles City High School are approaching an end; However our future lives in the world await. For us the 1964 Senior Class, this yearbook will be a record of happy memories. We hope that as you turn the pages you will perhaps be able to relive the days that have gone and will never return.

A TIME FOR REMEMBRANCE AND THANKSGIVING

We dedicate this annual to one who gave of herself to enrich and inspire
our lives,

Mrs. Nancy B. Bruce

Our Time

SENIOR MEMORIES

Time moves past at such a slow, continuous rate that none of us realize its passing until our high school years are almost at an end. We, the Class of 1964, are swiftly approaching our graduation and the completion of five happy years here at Charles City High School. As we prepare to leave our friends and instructors our hearts fill with sadness. Yet, we cannot be too oppressed because of the happy memories we shall carry with us.

After receiving seventh grade diplomas we enthusiastically entered the eighth grade. We felt extremely important since we were the first eighth grade to be an "official" part of high school. Our class consisted of fourteen members who were eager to join into school life. Under the direction of Mr. J. D. Smith, our teachers showed us that there was a great deal of work involved in each class.

The freshman year was filled with changes. To the administrative staff came a new and well-loved principal, Mr. Edward W. Eanes. There were also changes within our class; we lost two students but acquired Joyce Waltrip and Jimmy Johnson. With the sophomores we visited Mariners Museum and feasted at a picnic lunch at Buckroe.

The sophomore year found us active in sports and activities. We discovered that we would soon be needing money, so we began working on fund raising projects. Each of us felt proud and happy as we selected our class rings.

In our junior year we realized the responsibility of high school students as we moved into Mrs. Richardson's homeroom. We truly enjoyed our trip to Washington, D. C. which was actually an educational experience that we shall never forget.

Now we find ourselves in the Senior Class. This year is filled with hard work and high hopes.

This is what has happened to us in the past. What will our futures bring?

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1964 being of obstinate minds, determined souls, thankful hearts, and with occasional phases of ambition; realizing our high school career is approaching an end; Do hereby make this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To our parents, teachers, and friends, we wish to express our extreme gratitude for the encouragement and assistance you have shown in all our projects, large and small.

ARTICLE II

To our school, we leave days filled with peace and serenity, so that the students can learn in dignified surroundings.

ARTICLE III

To Mr. Eanes, we bequeath our sincere love and warm appreciation for his guidance, stability, and patience.

To Mrs. Richardson, we leave the privilege of acquiring the class you have long awaited.

To Mr. Crews, who has helped us so much with our annual, we bequeath peace of mind and future years of relaxation. "We love you, Mr. Crews!"

ARTICLE IV

To the Juniors, we bequeath a year of hard work and the "Senior Privileges". (However numbered they may be.)

ARTICLE V

I, Charles Yates, will and bequeath my psychology book to Jerry Peterson.

I, Wayne Webb, will and bequeath my ability to pronounce long words to Dora Faye Yates.

I, Henry Haupt, will and bequeath my ability to get along with girls to Bruce Wilcox.

I, John Major, will and bequeath my great speed to Sidney Reynolds.

I, Jimmy Johnson, will and bequeath my comb to Raymond Daniels.

I, Frankie Eargle, will and bequeath my position and honor as the only boy in the Beta Club to Charles Owens.

I, Virginia Marable, will and bequeath my love of music to Edna Gunderson.

I, Joyce Waltrip, will and bequeath my quiet manner to Kathy Bergdoll.

I, Jane Binns, will and bequeath my athletic ability to Lyn Payne.

I, Janet Hunt, will and bequeath my love of typing to Margie Means.

I, Karen Gunderson, will and bequeath my fondness for cats to Michael Minter.

I, Daryl Bowman, will and bequeath my height to Sandra Bowman.

THE LIVING END

Dear Kyle,
It has been a lot of fun being in school with you this year. Good luck and best wishes to you now and in the future.
Love,
Janet

Keep up your good grades.
I have seen a few of your classmates in the future. Don't forget to visit and meet the girls of your past. I wish to a nice
and considerate way.
Love,
Linda

Kyle,
you are one of the nicest boys
I know. Always remain that way.
Gracie

Stretch always upward
as you seem to be stretching physically.
at the present time.
Best wishes
A. Tyler
